

Psalm 136 (Aus/NZ) : lead sheet

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

Kate Keefe

Response

F C Dm F B♭ C F

Voice

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

Verse 1

8 F C7 F Dm B♭ F

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and

14 C B♭ F C F C7

wept, remembering Zion; on the poplars that

20 Dm C F B♭ C C7

grew there we hung up our harps.

(To Response)

Verse 2

26 F C7 F Dm B♭ F

For it was there that they asked us, our captors, for

32 C B♭ F C F C7

songs, our oppressors, for joy. Sing to us, they

38 Dm C F B \flat C C7

said, _____ 'one of Zi - on's songs.' _____

(To Response)

44 F C7 F Dm B \flat F

Verse 3

O _____ how could we sing _____ the song _____ of the

50 C B \flat F C F C7

Lord on a - li - en soil? _____ If I for - get you, Je -

56 Dm C F B \flat C C7

ru - sa - lem, let my right hand wi - ther!

(To Response)

62 F C7 F Dm B \flat F

Verse 4

O _____ let _____ my tongue _____ cleave to my mouth if

68 C B \flat F C F C7

I re - mem - ber you not, _____ if _____ I prize not Je -

74 Dm C F B \flat C C7

ru - sa - lem a - bove _____ all my joys! _____

(To Response)